Labor's four yrs of peace, industry-wide strikes have been going out of style, new pattern is developing in U S labor relations, no long industry-wide strike since 1952, workers weighing chances of strike gains against income loss, Jl 6 p 88-90
Strike losses: low, up to now, man-days lost because of strikes, in millions, from 1946 to 1956, 1956 based on first five mos, chart, Jl 6 p 89
If a strike begins to hurt—seldom-used law gives Ike power to stop strike, Taft-Hartley Act provides machinery for curbing strikes, injunction can be obtained barring strike for 80 days, used in 12 disputes, Jl 20 p 106
Step by step: how Taft-Tartley Act can be used to halt big strike, 8 steps in curbing strike, chart, Jl 20 p 106
If steel's a pattern—longer-term contracts can mean fewer strikes, settlement in steel clears way for era relatively free of strikes until at least mid-1958, increasing popularity of long-term contracts behind optimistic outlook, Ag 10 p 116-118
In period ahead: few big strikes, strike outlook in 10 industries, chart, Ag 10 p 116
299-day strike—who won? 6,000 workers trying to decide if results are worth wages lost, loss averaged about $4,300 per worker, Ag 17 p 109:1

LABOR—Contd.
7 weeks without phone, strike forces new kind of life on Ohio city, telephones not rung since mid-October, D 7 p 132--135

Wages

Pay raises: bigger this yr, raises during first half of 1956 tend larger than those in same period last yr, trend to larger wages started earlier this yr, Jl 6 p 90
Latest pattern for pay raises, raises of 10 cents an hour or more continue to be numerous in wage settlements reached outside steel industry, Jl 20 p 109:2
Latest argument for pay raises, from unions there now comes warning to workers: wages must keep raising every yr if this country is to enjoy continued prosperity, Ag 31 p 112, 113
How unions beat price rise, more and more get raises when living costs go up, labor unions turn to contracts that provide automatic raises in pay when living costs go up, total under "escalator" clauses growing as new contracts are signed, S 7 p 96-99
For workers in many industries—built-in boost in pay, 2.5 million Amers now work under wage contracts that guarantee pay boosts to cover rise in living costs, chart, S 7 p 96
Trend in raises—10 cents hourly, better than half of wage boosts granted in contracts negotiated so far this yr are for 10 cents an hour or more, survey by Bur of Natl Affairs, S 7 p 99:1
Eyes on John L Lewis, he's quietly working toward another wage increase, labor experts think Mr Lewis is waiting until 1957 to make move, even then, no big coal strike anticipated, S 14 p 129-132
Pay raises in U S industry, postwar style, earnings per hour, fringe benefits per hour, total pay per hour, 1947, now, chart, O 12 p 97
Coal miners' wages—almost double since 1946, wage increase per 8-hour day, daily wage after increase, 1946 to 1956, chart, O 12 p 117
Factory pay: now $2 an hour, weekly check of average worker is $3.29 more than it was yr ago, O 19 p 124:3
How factory worker's buying power has risen, current buying power of wages, gain and loss in buying power since January 1949, chart, (p&m), O 19 p 132
How road building will raise wages, Davis--Bacon Act requires employers to pay "prevailing wages" for construction work performed on U S Govt contracts or on projects receiving federal aid, O 26 p 117-120
Trend for '57: still higher pay, increases up to 11 cents hour already agreed on, few strikes expected, N 2 p 119-122
These raises already set for 1957, industries where key contracts provide for automatic raises next yr, hourly raises that will go into effect, chart, N 2 p 119
Wage rates still going up, raises of more than 10 cents continue to show up in wage contracts, D 14 p 127:1

Guaranteed Annual Wage

"Annual wage" spreading, idea that employers should pay benefits during layoff periods now is accepted quietly in many indsutries, steel and aluminum are latest, Ag 10 p 118, 119
Trend on to "annual wage," autos, steel now have it—others falling in line, employers finding it not so costly, many workers disappointed with layoff pay, Ag 17 p 106-108
"Annual wage"—four plans, how industries have answered union demands for layoff pay, in autos, steel, shipping and glass, chart, Ag 17 p 106
How "annual wage" is working out, 4 millions in benefits from annual wage clauses this yr, D 21 p 102-104

LAWRENCE, DAVID—Contd.
The "Giveaway" Cong, 84th Cong was most extravagant in giving away taxpayers' money, much as plain subsidy to powerful voting groups; tendency to economize only in foreign aid, Ag 3 p 116
Whose Dem Party?, only legitimate descendant of traditional Dem Party is that of Southern States; natl convention in Chicago gives South chance to challenge Northern faction in writing platform on States' rights, Ag 10 p 132
"The Promises Men Live By", Nasser makes "scrap of paper" of Suez Canal Treaty of 1888; condoning such action encourages more plunder and even aggression; World Wars I and II followed abrogation of treaties by Kaiser and Hitler, Ag 17 p 136
Wrong Campaign, at Wrong Time and Place, danger in disunity during campaign and possible interregnum between November and January if change in admin is voted, advantages of parliamentary system over Amer party convention system, Ag 24 p 132
How Do 160,000,000 People React?, in natl elections, economic contentment or discontent is controlling issue, but overriding emotional issue can shift vote to opposite party; issues, not personalities, win presidential elections, Ag 31 p 152
The People Want to Know, record of Pres Eisenhower is open book, but people have right to know extent to which Stevenson agrees or disagrees with Dem platform; enumeration of points on which voters will want more information as to changes from present policy or new policy Dem nominee has in mind, S 7 p 144
"Everybody For Himself And—", credit being restricted to curb inflation, but smaller businesses are hurt most due to tax laws favoring large businesses; important factor in economic unbalance is reckless demands of big unions; organized greed not being restrained, S 14 p 164
The Election that Isn't Won, fight to get out vote just beginning, Dems have big ally in AFL-CIO concentrated efforts on man-to-man basis, Repubs will have to counter by bringing issues to voters in face-to-face campaigning, S 21 p 160
Which Party for Labor?, real question for labor is whether business man's confidence in the future, creating more and more jobs, will remain or will be shaken, resulting in stagnation and unemployment; will Stevenson, if elected, feel obligated to labor-union bosses with avowed hostility to business, S 28 p 148
What Is "The Law of the Land"?, question arises as to whether "voluntary" integration as worked out in Louisville, Kentucky, schools is constitutional under Supreme Court decisions, Federal Court in South Carolina buttresses Louisville plan, James F Byrnes argues Supreme Court doesn't have power to "enforce" integration, O 5 p 152
Which Commander-in-Chief?, when Amer people elect Pres they also choose man who will be Commander-in-Chief of armed forces, country fortunate in present time of crisis to have in White House experienced military leader with accumulated knowledge of every phase of world diplomacy, O 12 p 152
Which Road? Amer people stand at crossroads to choose whether Nation's economy will continue on road of stability and business confidence or will be forced down road of frustration and stoppage of expansion; theme of Dem campaign is against business, O 19 p 176
The Man of the Era, (reprint from issue of January 6, 1956), may not recovery of Eisenhower mean that the crusade of the soldier-statesman must go on? O 26 p 156
This is no Time for a Change! with revolution spreading in Eastern Europe and Middle East aflame, this is no time to change Amer leadership in world and unsettle policies that have kept Amer boys out of war, N 2 p 152
The Use of Force, wars come when there is no satisfactory method of settling internatl legal question, irresponsible dictators and disregard of law provoke use of military force against them, as in case of Israel and Hungary, N 9 p 124
Triumph and Tragedy, election is victory for Eisenhower and for decent campaigning, party responsibility ignored in failing to give Pres working majority in Congress, N 16 p 176
